

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eric Felton Joins Prytania Asset Management as Independent Director

1st April 2019

CHICAGO, US - Prytania Asset Management is pleased to announce the appointment of Eric Felton as independent director of the firm, effective April 1 2019. Eric has a wealth of investment experience, most latterly from 13 years as CFO of GCM Grosvenor, one of the world's largest alternative asset firms. Prior to GCM Grosvenor, Eric was an audit partner at Ernst & Young and Arthur Andersen in the financial services sector.

"We are delighted to have Eric join our Board and look forward to the insights he can bring to the development of our business globally and, in particular, to build on the momentum established in the United States." said CEO and CIO Mark Hale.

"I am excited to join the Board of Prytania Asset Management, one of the longest tenured and very few independent specialized credit managers focusing on the emerging opportunity set in Structured Credit. I hope to leverage my knowledge and experience to help the firm continue to expand its business and operations across the globe." said Eric Felton.

Prytania is also announcing that Joseph MacHale will be retiring from its Board. Prytania is grateful for the tremendous value Joe has added during his sixteen years of Board service since the firm's inception in 2003. Joe remains a shareholder of the management company and an investor in the firm's products.

About Prytania Asset Management

Prytania Asset Management is an independent Structured Credit specialist with offices in London, New York City and Chicago. Prytania offers a suite of funds and separate accounts that provide investors with tailored access to the global Structured Credit opportunity set.

For media enquiries, please contact: investorrelations@prytania.com